English Language and Composition Test: Wednesday, May 12, 2010 at 7:50 am

No highlight pens, scratch paper, food, drink, backpacks, or electronic devices during testing.

Bring black pens and pencils.

Remember: You get $\frac{1}{4}$ of a point taken away for every wrong answer. You do not get any points taken away for any unanswered questions. In order to score a 3 or higher on your test you need to answer correctly on a little more than $\frac{1}{2}$ the questions on the total multiple choice questions and do acceptable on the written free response portion. Keep in mind if you leave too many answers blank, you will not be able to answer more than half of the answers correctly.
